

Kenzhegali Sagadiev, University of International Business, Kazakhstan

Prof. Kenzhegali Sagadiev, an eminent academic and public figure, a statesman, Doctor of Economic Sciences, deputy of Parliament of Republic of Kazakhstan (III and IV convocations), and full member of National Academy of Sciences. Prof. Sagadiev served as a Rector for several large universities and made significant contribution to the development of higher education in Kazakhstan. He also was elected as President of National Academy of Sciences. During his deputy service in the Majilis (Parliament) of the RK he chaired its Finance and Budget Committee and contributed remarkably to elaboration of legislative system of national economy development.

His academic background relates to macroeconomic policy and national economy competitiveness.